Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when those organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

WANTS HERETICS HANGED.

Rev. Robert M. Patterson, pastor of the Great Valley Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, startled a large number of his brother ministers at their weekly meeting yesterday afternoon by advocating the death penalty for the assailants of women, the despoilers of homes and heretics.

"Every scoundrel, rich or poor," said Dr. Patterson, "who ruins a young girl by force I would have swept into eternity. I would hand over to the executioner the guilty party making a divorce necessary. Murder should not be the only crime with a death penalty. Our whole penal code needs revision. Those who deliberately spread blasphemous, heretical and immoral doctrines should also be put to death."

Several ministers objected to such radical talk. Rev. Dr. Henry C. McCook made a spirited reply.

"My blood boiled," said he, "as I heard some of the sentences which have just been uttered. I doubt if there is another man, and I certainly hope there is not, in the Presbyterian Church who would have spoken them.

"Who shall be the judge of what is blasphemous, heretical or immoral? Should we be judged by some ladies we should all be condemned. I marvel that Dr. Patterson's sentiments should be called radical. They are so ultra-conservative that they hark back to the times of mediaeval persecution.

"In regard to the assailants of women I have always contended that they should be deprived of the means of repeating such crimes, and I still hold this view. Dr. Patterson was eloquent as ever. He has not lost his force, but he must have lost his head when he made such an address to this assemblage."

ATTACKS BOOK OF JONAH.

"I do not believe one word of the Book of Jonah as history," was the surprising declaration with which Rev. Charles F. Aked, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, New York—John D. Rockefeller's church—opened his sermon Sunday night.

Not only was the historical narrative of Jonah cast to the winds, but the prophets—as men inspired of God to forfetell the birth of Christ and other future events—were wiped from the region of fact.

"There is no forecasting of events and no such inspiration," declared Dr. Aked.

"The story of Jonah is a parable; in fact it is fiction," declared the preacher. "But it is radiant with prophecy."

Dr. Aked's conception of Jonah is that the book concerning him is "one of the greatest and most valuable books in the Bible."

At his home Sunday night Dr. Aked went more into detail regarding his view of the story of Jonah. Jonah, he said, was not a real person, and his events recited in four chapters of the Bible never occurred. Some man, whose name even is not known, but of the broadest mental grasp and a deeper and fuller realization of God's limitless love and vast purposes, told the story, to illustrate to the Jews how God in His own good time would extend redemption, not to the "Chosen People" only, but to the men of every tribe and nation, then despised by the Jews, Dr. Aked said.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotton rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

TWO CHILDREN KILLED.

Mathew Glovcski, five years old, and his sister, Lucy, eleven years old, were run down by a Lake Shore train and killed Sunday night on a crossing near Amherst, Ohio, and their aunt, Miss Sophia Glovek, was fatally hurt.

The three were walking on the track when the boy's foot became fastened in a cattle guard. In attempting to rescue him his sister also caught her foot in the guard. The children called their aunt, who was walking ahead, for assistance. The woman was unable to pull the children's feet from the cattle guard, and had stopped to unlace the little boy's shoe when she look up to see a freight train bearing down upon him.

The children were killed instantly, and the aunt's right leg was broken in two places, her right shoulder crushed, and her head badly hurt. She will die.

TRAINS ENTER STRASBURG.

Beginning today the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company will operate its trains into Strasburg. This is the result of the case which has been pending between Strasburg and the Baltimore and Ohio and which was taken before the State Corporation Commission. Since the Southern got possession of the tracks between Strasburg Junction and Harrisonburg, December, 1896, the Baltimore and Ohio has only operated its trains to the junction, one mile from town. The original charter of the company specified Caton Crossing, in Strasburg. Upon this charter the commission ordered the Baltimore and Ohio to run its trains into town over the Southern tracks.

Collector P. Davis Oakley has voluntarily withdrawn the personal bond of $25,000, given for the proper performance of his duties, and has substituted the bond of a fidelity company for the same amount. This commendable action deserves a passing comment. Mr. Oakley found no difficulty whatever in getting bondsmen, but, whoever his bondsmen might be, there could be no denying that they had put the collector under a direct personal obligation to them. It is far more independent and self respecting, to go down into your own pocket for the premium and pay a corporation, chartered for the purpose, for giving its bond for you. This cost him some money, but with that he buys complete personal independence and sets an example that should be widely followed. It is the way to do business; and it is no reflection upon willing friends to go instead to a company. On the contrary, it is doing them a favor.

This bond was written by the

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 15, 1907.

REV. ROBERT M. PATTERSON, pastor of the Great Valley Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, wants heretics to be made subject for capital punishment. He fails to say who shall sit upon the cases of persons who may be arraigned for heresy, but it is supposed that the reverend gentleman regards all persons heretics who fail to fit his procrastean bed. It was hoped that the "offense" of heresy, like that of witchcraft, would never again be heard in the world, and men be allowed to read revelation and draw their own conclusions. But it seems that the spirit of by gone years is still alive in the world, as a man in the twentieth century, pastor of a church in one of the largest cities in the United States, is thirsting for the blood of those who refuse to gaze through his spectacles or who may not fit his moulds. Since the days of Adel men have disputed and fought over religious issues, and bad blood engendered which has flowed through the ages. Every sect imagines it is orthodox in its teachings, while Christianity is split into many organizations and new offshoots are protruding here and there. Some religious enthusiasts seem to go about with chips on their heads looking for people with whom to wrangle over issues which are generally not essential to salvation. The world is full of creeds, while good deeds among the many professors of the faith are not increasing as fast as is desired. Should the world adopt Mr. Patterson's suggestion, but a small percentage of the people of this planet would survive, as the bulk probably do not adopt his religious views. Mr. John Barrett in his lecture in the Second Presbyterian Church in this city last night said there were about six hundred millions Asiatics. All these would necessarily be hanged and the yellow peril, which worries diplomats would be a thing of the past.

WAR against the white slave traffic, which has been declared by Secretary Straus, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, and by the chief officials of the immigration service, has begun with the appointment of a number of special immigration officers, whose sole duty will be to investigate and prosecute all cases in which women are brought to this country for immoral purposes, and to deport such women. In addition a circular order has been issued to all agents of the Immigration Bureau, instructing them to be upon the alert for the suppression of this traffic and to investigate every suspicious case brought to their attention. This traffic should be stopped at once and at all hazard.

AS WILL be seen by a news item, in another column of the Gazette, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad trains will into Strasburg be operated from Strasburg Junction beginning today. The company was ordered by the State Corporation Commission to run its trains into the town, beginning November 1. There is every reason to believe that if asked to do so the Corporation Commission will order the various railroad companies which formerly had their stations in this city to again run their trains into and through Alexandria. The removal of their depot to a site beyond the city limits had done much harm to this city which is still paying taxes to build at least one of the roads which now give Alexandria the go-by.

IN a bulletin just issued the Bureau of Labor submits innumerable tables and a great many thousand words to sustain its contention that wages in this country were increased in the year 1906 more than the price of food. It is promised that a second bulletin will show a similar condition for 1907.

From Washington

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 15.

Mr. Roosevelt's railroad policies came squarely before the Supreme Court of the United States today, when briefs were submitted on the petition to grant writs of certiorari, whereby the four big packing concerns of the West hope to evade payment of the $12,000,000 fines for accepting "a concession" from railroads on shipments of meat for export. The Department of Justice is fighting the case on behalf of the government. The solicitor general holds that if the contention of the packers be accepted by the court, the entire field of foreign commerce would be taken out of the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission and the railroads will be left free to grant rebates, to give concessions, and to discriminate between shippers and localities. The importance of the case is emphasized by the argument that the Hepburn act does not alter the unrepealed provisions of the Elkins act, under which the packers were convicted. In the application for the writs today to bring the cases from the 8th circuit court of appeals to the Supreme Court, the packers claim that the Elkins law is unconstitutional, because it is said to restrict and burden export traffic by levying a tax on articles exported from a State and because a preference is given to a port of one state over that of another by this regulation of commerce. The department replies that by no means of construction can the Elkins act be said to levy a tax on meat exported. As Congress has passed a general law affecting all foreign commerce, it is argued that such legislation cannot discriminate between certain ports, because it may happen in a given case that one port is more available for the exportation of certain traffic than another.

Politicians in Washington have been discussing with unusual interest the Parsons-Hearst Alliance in New York, and have been commenting upon its significance in the forthcoming presidential contest. Some of President Roosevelt's friends profess to be shocked that the man whom he practically made chairman of the New York county committee should become the political bed fellow of the man who Secretary Root last year, speaking for the President, termed an "enemy of the republic." Others, however, regard it as a shrewd but legitimate move in the great game of national politics, calculated to cripple the opposition at the very start. It is pretty generally conceded that the President must have known of Parson's intention of tying up with the Hearst folks. "I do not profess to be in the President's confidence," said a member of the republican national committee today," but it would be my guess that the President is sitting in this New York game. If by fusion with the Independence Leagues he can accomplish the defeat of the democrats in New York he has done a big thing for the party. If he can corral that sentiment in support of his candidate, there would not be much chance for Bryan. The president is a practical man and he is in the habit of using the tools at hand for the accomplishment of his ideas, even though the tools are not as good as he would like to have them."

Although no final decision has been reached, it is believed that the government will take no steps towards enforcing the payment of the $900,000 due it from the Jamestown Exposition Company. Assistant Secretary Edwards, who has made several visits to Jamestown, has gone over the ground very thoroughly with Secretary Cortelyou at the latter's summer home on Long Island. The Secretary will be at his desk at the Department next week, by which time it is hoped a check for several hundred thousand more will be at hand from the exposition company. This intimation was made by Treasurer Beeman, of the company, who conferred last night with Assistant Secretary Edwards.

Anti-centralization should be the text of the planks of the next national democratic convention in the opinion of Senator Frazer, of Tennessee, who today said: "During the present administration, the tendency toward centralization has been going on at a very rapid rate. If this continues, the States will become mere geographical divisions of the centralized government. Another plank of the platform should demand a revision of the tariff, not in the far-off, indefinite future, nor by those friends of the present tariff who would practically not revise it at all but by those who believe that the tariff should primarily be made for revenue purposes only. I do not think there is any doubt that Bryan will be nominated by acclamation. He will receive the delegation from Tennessee, where he is admired because of his political views and personal character."

Fire at an early hour this morning damaged the interior of the Hebrew Synagogue, on Eighth street between H and I, to the extent of about $15,000. The loss is covered by insurance.

The National Spiritualists' Convention is now in full blast, punctured with tirades against commercial and fake mediums, and with demonstrations by red and white robed sepresses of their own power to do creepy things. Mrs. Sexsmith, of Chicago, covered with a robe of red, was giving an exhibition of her powers. Two men, she declared, a brother and a father, both in spirit form, were hovering around one of the men in the audience, telling him he was unhappy. The subject thereupon arose and declared that he was entirely happy and not at all unfortunate.

A call for a meeting of the republican national committee to decide upon the time and place for holding the next national convention will be issued tomorrow, Secretary Dowe, of the committee, is now in Washington, and will be joined here by Chairman Harry New tomorrow. The call will then be sent out and the committee will be asked to meet in this city, probably in December.

When the case testing the constitutionality of the Kansas liquor laws requiring a permit to sell intoxicating liquors were called for argument in the U. S. Supreme Court today, the attorney for the convicted saloonists asked that the cases be passed. He told the court that a settlement would be made out of court. All attempts to have the laws declared unconstitutional have been abandoned and the only question now left unsettled is the punishment of the convicted men.

Representatives of 100 commercial bodies and 40 railroads appeared before the Interstate Commerce Commission today for hearing on the proposed uniform bill of lading. The importance of case may be gathered from the fact that hundreds of millions of dollars are advanced annually upon bills of lading. To prevent fraud in the handling of this immense amount of money the business interest are fighting for the adoption of certain precautionary changes.

Mrs. Dora Bauer, the "affinity" of Rev. Maxwell J. H. Walenta, who was arrested in New York with the pastor Saturday and held for investigation as to her sanity, declared yesterday that she had never loved Louis Bauer, her husband, and had married him "just for spite."

One man was killed, five others will probably die, and eight were badly injured yesterday, when seventeen cars of a work train crashed through a trestle on the New Erie and Jersey Railway, at Stonyford, near Middletown, N. J. The cars were loaded with dirt and stone, and twenty Austrian laborers, who were on the train went, down with them to the bottom of the ravine, ninety feet below.

James N. Sutton, father of Lieut. James H. Sutton, who died at Annapolis Sunday of a gunshot wound, says he has unquestionable information from Annapolis to the effect that his son came to his death by accident. He says his information also disputes the statement that young Sutton was possessed of two guns and that there was an effort made by the man's companions to disarm him. Further than this, Mr. Sutton says he knows that his son had no reason for taking his own life.

Samuel J. Small, president of the Telegraphers' Union, did not attend the meeting of the New York union held in Clinton Hall yesterday afternoon. When a reporter went to the hall and asked one of the strikers if Small was there the striker grinned and replied: "You can bet your life Small isn't here, and he won't come here. He had too much trouble getting away from here Sunday, and he won't trust himself in a meeting of striking telegraphers again. Why, he never would have gotten away with a whole skin Sunday if he hadn't gone down the fire escape. If we had got hold of him he would have been roughly handled."

COL. MAURY DROPS DEAD.

Col. Maury had been in declining health for a number of years. He was found lying face downward across his bed. Col. Maury left a fortune valued at $300,000. He is survived by his wife, one son and one daughter.

Col. Maury, who was a graduate of the University of Virginia, settled in Richmond soon after the close of the war, where he practiced the profession of law up to the time of his death.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

The session of the third and last week of the sittings of the House of Deputies of the General Episcopal Convention opened in Richmond yesterday with a volume of business transacted. Dr. Reece F. Alsop, chairman of the committee on new dioceses, offered a resolution asking that the deputies concur with the House of Bishops in accepting the eastern portion of the State of Oregon as a missionary jurisdiction. The resolution was accepted.

The resolutions of the committee on divorce offered Friday by Dr. J. H. Eccleston, of Baltimore, were adopted, and Dr. Eccleston yesterday offered a resolution to concur with the House of Bishops in a suggestion made by that body. This was that a committee of five bishops, five clergymen and five laymen should be appointed to consider again and report to the next convention the whole subject contained in canon 38 regarding clergmen of the Protestant Episcopal Church marrying divorced persons. The new commission is one more effort on the part of Bishop Doane to pass a canon forbidding Protestant Episcopal clegymen performing a marriage ceremony for any divorced person, no matter for what cause they were divorced and irrespective of their being the innocent or guilty party. This is termed a stringent canon.

The House of Bishops has appointed the following on the commission: Rt. Rev. William C. Doane, Bishop of Albany; George W. Peterkin, Bishop of West Virginia; William David Walker, Bishop of Western New York; William Paret, Bishop of Maryland, and Arthur C. A. Hale, Bishop of Vermont. It was voted to concur with the House of Bishops, but the House of Deputies has not yet appointed the clerical and law members.

The report of the commission of provinces occasioned some stir in the house. A majority report was submitted with 12 signatures and a minority report bearing the signature of Rev. Edwin Barnes Niver, of Baltimore. The comparative merits of the two commissions was sidetracked by arguments in regard to the wisdom of creating the diocese and missionary districts into provinces at all. A province was to consist of a group of adjacent dioceses that should meet annually or at fixed dates for federal needs.

The Western dioceses appeared to feel their needs were not wholly understood by the central committee on mission expenditure. Others urged that those interested in creating provinces were in no way interested nor concerned in the expenditure of the mission funds, but that they were vitally concerned in stimulating enthusiasm in mission work, and this could best be done by bringing isolated dioceses in touch the one with the other.

Mr. Francis A. Lewis, of Philadelphia, opposed the whole proposition. He held that in the creation of provinces quarrels would be sure to ensue and to boil the matter down the whole work would be to go up and talk about missions, and he saw no more reason to set in motion the whole elaborate machinery of the church than to call out the State militia to arrest one man for disorderly conduct who might easily be managed by a single policeman.

Rev. William Otis Waters, of Chicago, made an equally strong address supporting the province idea, saying that the size and distance between dioceses had forced the diocese into this project for grouping in co-operative work.

The matter was taken up again last night. Rev. Dr. Grammer, of Pennsylvania, recommended that the question of dividing dioceses and missionary districts into provinces be finally decided at this convention and not referred to a committee. Dr. Grammer's resolution was carried.

Dr. Thomas Nelson Page, in arguing the creation of provinces, spoke touchingly of the civil war and, in closing, said the noise of battle had failed to disrupt the church and that the convention was about to do that thing in creating provinces, which would result in rivalry among the various provinces, and the church would consist of so many branches fighting for supremacy.

The vote was taken by dioceses, and the message as presented by the House of Bishops was defeated.

The committee on expenses reported that it had now in hand a legacy of $50,000 left by E. P. Dwight, of Philadelphia, which, as set forth in his will, was to be used by the Protestant Episcopal Church, "that the light of the Gospel might be made to shine more brightly." The fund was to be disposed of by the general convention.

Deputy Carpenter, of the committee, recommended that a resolution be adopted authorizing that the fund be turned over to the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society and that is be called the "Dwight fund" and be used at the discretion of the society to the best advantage. The resolution was adopted.

Rev. Dr. Huntington, of New York, chairman of the committee on amendment to the institution, reported that his committee had agreed to recommend the version of the Scriptures known as "The King James Edition" as the standard of the church. The committee further recommended that the marginal Bible, which is a receptable of the version, might be used at the discretion of the clergy. The committee stated in this connection that the accepted version is the one supreme classic of the "English language." The recommendations of the committee were adopted.

The committee on amendment to the constitution asked for relief from further consideration of a memorial from the delegations from Pennsylvania creating missionary jurisdictions on racial lines. The committee asked that the memorial be referred back to the committee on canons for report at the next general convention.

The recommendations involved a discussion on the problem of negro bishops and other matters in connection with the work among the negroes. Upon motion of Dr. Grammer, of Pennsylvania, the matter was inserted in the order of the day for today, at which time it will be still further discussed.

The presiding Bishop of the House of Bishops announced that he had made temporary provision for the missionary district now without bishops, and that the missionary district of Wyoming had been placed under the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Idaho, the missionary district of Nevada under the charge of the Bishop of Sacramento and the missionary district of Western Colorado under the charge of the Bishop of Utah.

A resolution was referred to the committee on dispatch of business, with instructions to report at the next general convention, looking to the feasibility of selecting a permanent place for holding the triennial conventions and also for the erection of a building at the place to be selected in which the conventions may be held.

The Deputies concurred in a message from the House of Bishops accepting the resignation of Bishop L. L. Kinsolving, of Brazil, and erecting out of his district a foreign missionary district of the American Episcopal Church. At night the House of Bishops elected Bishop Kinsolving bishop to the missionary district of Brazil, to succeed himself. Bishop Kinsolving took his seat in the house today.

Rev. Dr. Wilkins, of Los Angeles, secured the passage of a resolution forming a commission of ten bishops, fifteen clergymen, and twenty laymen to raise a fund of $5,000,000 for the relief of disabled clergy.

The committee of the House of Bishops on foreign missions reported that they considered it inexpedient to establish a bishopric in the Dominican republic.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Explosion in Powder Works.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 15.—Four men were killed and fifteen injured badly in an explosion at Dupont Works at Fontanet at 10 o'clock. The entire village is destroyed. Every building in the town is demolished. A special train with physicians has left here for the scene. The detonation was heard at Green Castle and Danville, 60 miles away. Later reports have more killed, but it is not authentic.

There were other minor injuries at Rosedale, Coal Bluff and Burnett. Buildings were shaken and chimneys felled. This city suffered some by cracking walls.

Nothing of the immense powder mills could be found. A vast hole in the earth showed the scene of the explosion.

Reports now say that it is feared many miners while at work in the mines have either been killed or injured by walls of the mines caving in.

Distracted women rushed to the mines to get their husbands to aid in the work of rescue, only to find that the men could not in some cases come out of them.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 15.—The Big Four train that just arrived here reports a second explosion at a storehouse near the powder mills at Fontanet that occurred at 11:20, killing and maiming a number of rescuers. This report has not been verified.

Another dispatch says the town of Fontanet was wrecked and that over half the employes at the mills were killed as well as many men, women and children in the village. With forty bodies recovered up to noon and with a train load of injured brought to the hospitals here the work of rescue is still going on.

The death list will grow to almost 100 persons is the belief of the rescuers.

The explosion caused damage in towns and villages miles away.

Train Wrecked.

London, Oct. 15.—At least fifteen persons perished, twenty-three are gravely injured and many suffered less serious hurts in the wreck of a Northwestern Railroad train on a curve near Shrewsbury station at 2 a. m. today.

Besides the corpses already taken from the debris it is feared other bodies are still buried in the mountain of wreckage. Several of the injured cannot live. Fire followed the crash, and the bodies of several of the dead were party burned.

The killed include the driver, fireman and guard of the train, who stuck at their posts, though they might have saved their lives by jumping.

The express was bound from Crewe to London and running at terrific speed when it struck the curve, mounted the rails apparently of its own momentum and swung across the track. Several of the coaches telescoped and all but the last one were derailed.

The wreckage burst into flames almost instantly, forcing the rescuers to battle with the fire even before turning their attention to saving the injured. A fire brigade hurried to the scene from Shrewsbury, finally extinguishing the flames, but not until several persons had been fearfully burned.

The wrecked train was made up of coaches from Liverpool, York, Glasgow and Aberdeen.

Excessive speed on a dangerous curve is charged and a strict investigation will be made to fix responsibility for the disaster.

English Trainmen to Strike.

London, Oct. 15.—About nine in ten members of the Amalgamated Society of Railways' Servants are voting for a strike on every line in England. The ballot's result will not be announced until October 23, but the men's decision for warfare is a foregone conclusion.

The walkout will tie up practically every mile of track on the island, and its effect, with the complete prostration of commerce all over Great Britain, cannot fail to be felt throughout the world. The men demand an eight-hour day for all concerned in the movement of trains an increase in pay and recognition of the unions.

Though the Amalgamated Society's membership is only 97,000 it will be able to include all of the 581,000 English railroad men in the strike. Secretary Richard Bell, of the Society, labor member of Parliament for Derby, is the movement's active leader. The unionists' fighting fund amounts to more than $1,500,000. Railroad officials say union recognition would ruin discipline, and that compliance with the demands for higher pay and shorter hours would wipe out all profits on many lines.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Aug. 15.—Pronounced weakness developed in stock market during the first hour's trading. After ten minutes' trading profit-taking developed. Later the selling assumed larger proportions and resulted in a number of new low records for the present movement being established. Near the close of the first hour the selling was still in progress. Detroit United Railways lost 18 points to 35, on passing of the dividend.

DOES YOUR SCALP ITCH?

Are Your Hairs Dropping One by One?

If your scalp itches you are doubtless suffering from dandruff. The dandruff germ is digging up your scalp in little tiny flakes, called dandruff, and sapping the life of the hair bulb. No hair preparation that is a mere hair stimulant and tonic will cure dandruff, because it won't kill the germ that causes the trouble. Newbro's Herpicide is the latest scientific discovery; and it will kill the dandruff germ. Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect; kill the germ and you will have no more dandruff, failing hair or baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Japanese and Americans Fight.

San Francisco, Oct. 15.—Two Japanese are in the Emergency Hospital and dozens of Americans are suffering from serious bruises as a result of a race riot followed by a fight with the police early today.

Joseph King, a drunken lodger, started the trouble by stumbling through a Japanese laundry window. Umkekubo, the proprietor, promptly dragged him inside and placed him under guard of Omura, a young Japanese employe, while he hurried for the police.

Three of King's companions attempted a rescue, however; a dozen Japanese rushed to the aid of Umkekubo, and Omura, and the street was filled with a struggling mob when Policeman Thomas Collier charged the crowd single handed. A riot call followered and a detachment of blue coats swept through the packed street, beating the rioters down with their clubs, right and left. King was found asleep in a rear room of the laundry after the rioters had been scattered, ignorant that there had been a disturbance.

Destruction and Loss of Life by Flood

Perpingan, France, Oct. 15.—Enormous additions to property damage by last week's floods, some with serious loss of life, are threatened by a fresh rise following severe storms and a terrific downpour last night. Refugees from the high water, tempted back to their homes by yesterday's subsidence in the streams, were taken by surprise by the fresh rise and many, it is feared, are cut off from escape.

At Ricarbad a wedding and baptismal party was caught in the house where the celebration was in progress. Rescue is impossible and it is feared at least a score must perish there alone. The buildings at the new watering place of St. Paul Fenouillel have been destroyed, and the handsome summer villas which line the river Boulzanne have been swept away. The losses thus far are estimated at $10,000,000.

Killed Herself and Babe.

New York, Oct. 15.—Weary of the struggle against what she considered an incurable disease, Mrs. Alice J. Helmund, wife of a wealthy Brooklyn builder, ended her life by inhaling illuminating gas. Fearing her fourteen months old baby might inherit her disease, and believing him better dead than to be left to the care of others, she ended the babe's life at the same time. Cold in death with the babe's arms locked about her neck and his cheek pressed against her breast, mother and child were found in an attic filled with the deadly gas by alarmed searchers.

Transatlantic Wireless Telegraphy.

Sydney, N. S., Oct. 15.—Transatlantic wireless telegraphy is to begin before the end of the week. Service message have already, it is said, passed between the stations at Cape Breton and Clifden, Ireland. A start on commercial business could be made at once, according to Inventor Marconi. The first press message may be flashed almost any time. On this class of business there is to a cnt from the cable rate of 10 to 5 cents per word. Commercial messages are to be reduced from 25 to 10 cents.

Scholars on a Strike.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Because Miss Ovile Hurlburt, one of the teachers of the Barrington high school, has been asked to resign, 65 pupils of the school have gone on strike. Jealousy is said to be at the bottom. It is said she flirted with some of the larger boys in the school. This she denies. Members of the school board, pressed for an explanation, merely say she didn't keep her room in order. The pupils say they will hold out until Miss Hurlburt is given her place again.

Hau's Appeal Disallowed.

Berlin, Oct. 15.—The Supreme Court of the Empire has disallowed the appeal sought by Prof. Hau, the Washington lawyer, under sentence of death for the murder of his mother-in-law, Frau Molitor. The higher tribunal's action seals the prisoner's fate unless the Kaiser should interfere in his behalf.

Trolley Accident.

Halifax, England, Oct. 15.—Three persons were killed and thirty injured today when a trolley car became unmanageable ascending a steep hill at Bolton Brow, dashed backward down the steep incline and crashed into a house. Several of the injured were frightfully mutilated and will die.

The wife of the dead man is critically ill and has not been informed of her husband's death.

Attorney Fulton, counsel for Henry C. Hechler, of Henrico county, recently indicted for violations of the pure election laws, in court yesterday accused Commonwealth's Attorney Wendenburg, of Henrico, of a violation of the code in interfering with the deliberations of the grand jurors when not sworn to testify as a witness. Attorney Wendenburg had declined to take part in the case, but afterward, Fulton alleged, attempted to influence the jurors in their verdict. In view of the charges, Judge Harrison adjourned court to permit investigation.

International Complications Feared.

Berlin, Oct. 15.—International complications are threatened as a result of yesterday's arrest of several Englishmen said to be naval officers and the seizure of the yacht on which they were passengers by two Wilhelmshaven torpedo boats off Borkum. The German military authorities say there is no doubt the Britons were sounding and taking photographs in forbidden waters. The prisoners deny this, declare they were on a peaceful pleasure cruise, and denounce their arrest and the seizure of their yacht as an outrage. The British government's action is awaited with considerable anxiety.

MR. BARRETT'S LECTURE.

There was an appreciative audience of ladies and gentlemen in the Second Presbyterian Church last night to hear Mr. John Barrett's lecture. His subject was the Panama Canal, although the speaker did not wholly confine himself to the isthmus or the great benefit to be derived by the United States by the construction of the canal; but he carried his hearers all over the globe. There is probably no man in the country better qualified to set forth the relations of the western hemisphere with other portions of the globe than Mr. Barrett, as he has made international affairs a life-time study, and has held important diplomatic positions in South America and Asia. His present position as Director of the International Bureau of American Republics keeps him in touch with the countries to the south of the United States. Mr. Barrett delivered a lecture on South America in the Presbyterian Church last March, and the impression he produced at that time was apparent last night, when most of the Alexandrians who were present on that occasion were among his auditors.

The lecture was delivered under auspices of the Presbyterian Brotherhood, and Mr. Barrett was introduced by Mr. D. R. Stansbury, the President of the organization.

The speaker, after giving expression to some pleasantry and relating an amusing anecdote, launched into his subject, handling it in a masterly manner. He portrayed the gigantic work in connection with the construction of the canal, its cost ($500,000,000), and the enormous benefits the United States would receive from it not only from a commerical standpoint, but in a diplomatic way. Mr. Barrett gave a vivid description of the present satisfactory conditions existing on the Isthmus, in contract to those of a few years ago, showing what had been accomplished, and pointing out the amount of work yet to be done. He portrayed the imaginary course of a steamship of the Lusitania type entering the canal on the Atlantic side, ascending in about an hour's time, by successive locks, to the great lake eighty-five feet above the sea, and then decending into the Pacific. He said that the construction of the enormous dam, which is to receive the waters of the lake, would require the services of 5,000 men, working for seven or eight years. The speaker asserted Col. W. C. Gorgas, by his unceasing efforts in the interest of sanitation on the isthmus, has proven himself to be the "hero of the canal." Mr. Barrett said that it had been about a year since there had been a case of yellow fever on the isthmus owing to the improved conditions. Mr. Barrett received an ovation at the close of his lecture.

DISORDERLY PEDDLER.

A man named James O'Neal, who said he had been peddling cheap jewelry and other articles at the Jamestown Exposition, came here yesterday and succeeded in borrowing $5 from a citizen on a watch which a jeweler aftewards said was worth about $2. O'Neal stopped another Alexandrian and succeeded in negotiating a loan of $1 on a brass ring. He was later arrested by Officer Beach and taken to the station house, where he became disorderly, and when searched by Officer Sherwood he denounced all Virginians and said he would shoot the officer if he had a pistol. He attempted to assault Mr. Sherwood, and the latter was compelled to strike him over the wrist with his stick. O'Neal was brought before the Police Court this morning when he said he had no recollection of what occurred last night. He said he had indulged in about thirty-five drinks of liquor yesterday. It was shown, however, that he was not drunk when arrested. The accused was fined $5 for disorderly conduct and made to refund the money he had procured from the Alexandrians. He said he had but $1.50 with which to pay his way back to New York, but the officers found a five-dollar bill and a one-dollar bill under his hat band.

NIGHT SCHOOL.

At Peabody school building last night Col. T. H. Ficklin organized a night school for boys, which will be opened on Wednesday night. About a dozen boys were present last night and it is said that more would have been there but for the report that the organization of the school had been postponed. Col. Ficklin and Mr. L. E. Uhler, chairman of the Council committees on schools and finance, were present with the boys who, it is said, were very anxious to attend the school and who said others would be present on Wednesday. Some of the teachers of the regular schools held in the building have sent petitions to the chairman of the school board protesting against holding the night school in their rooms.

UNSIGNED PAPERS.

It was stated yesterday that Mayor Paff would not sign the report of the finance committee recommending the payment of the bill of the Pinkerton Agency for $378.28 by reason of the committee's protest against the contraction of such obligations in future without previous appropriations from Council. He has also returned without his approval the papers appropriating $75 to the Columbia Fire Company; $75 to the Reliance and $50 to the Relief Hook and Ladder Company. The following are the Mayor's words on the papers referred to; "These bills I will not sign. They may become laws without my signature."

BURGLAR FRIGHTENED OFF.

At an early hour this morning while a colored man who is employed at the Cameron Mills, Fairfax county, was entering the western part of the city he saw a man in the act of climbing through the transom of the front door of Messrs. Ahern & Bros.' store, corner of Prince and West streets. The colored man raised an alarm and the thief made his escape. It was later ascertained that the man had entered the store and stolen some canned goods.

MONEY DECLINED.

A special meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company was held last night, when thirteen of the nineteen active members of the company were present. President John A. Trimyer presided.

The meeting was called for the purpose of taking action in regard to the $50 appropriated by council Tuesday night toward paying the expenses of the company to the Virginia State Firemen's Convention held in Newport News last August.

The president stated that a communication had been received in August from the finance committee setting forth that they would recommend to council the appropriation of $50 when that body met for defraying the expenses of the company to the convention. The chair further stated that as the officers of the company at the time had had no assurances that the council committee could guarantee this amount, the company made no appropriation to pay the expenses of the members who went to the convention.

Several members said the company could afford to pay the expenses of its delegates to the convention, and as council had discriminated against them they determined to decline the money.

Upon a vote being taken it was decided unanimously to decline the appropriation. It is said this action followed the refusal of council Tuesday night to allow the truck company $75, the amount appropriated for each of the other fire companies.

AUTOMOBILE FATALITIES.

Running briskly down Keim street, Pottstown, Pa., on the way home after a visit there late yesterday afternoon, an automobile containing a party of five from Kimberton, a village near Phoenixville, was struck broadside by the Philadelphia and Reading Express No. 7 and four of the party were killed. The dead are: Mrs. A. Wayne Emery, Kimberton; Velva Emery, her infant daughter; Jacob Reese, Mrs. Emery's brother, and Mrs. Jacob Reese. A. Wayne Emery, owner of the machine, aged forty-five, has a broken thigh and possibly internal injuries. His chance for recovery is slight.

Miss Mary Miller, who was crushed when the automobile of George Wilkinson, a Grand Rapids, Mich., lumberman, turned turtle on the Grandville road Sunday night, died yesterday of her injuries. Mrs. Anna Groner and Mrs. Lois Bossiter, who were also in the machine, are in a serious condition. Wilkinson, who was driving the machine, escaped with severe bruises. Miss Miller was a stenographer. Her home was at Frankfort, Mich.

Afflicted With Sore Eyes for 33 Years.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me.—P. C. Earles, Cynthiana, Ky. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists. 50c.

A weak Stomach, causing dispepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation of intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail samples free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by E S. Leadbeater & Sons.

FLOODS IN SPAIN.

A dispatch from Barcelona to the London Telegraph says it is feared that thousands of persons have been drowned in the Llobegrat and Cardoner flood. The water is twenty-five feet deep over thousands of acres. It will be impossible for a long time to ascertain the number of victims, as the torrent washes the bodies out to sea.

Phenomenally heavy rain fell Sunday throughout the province of Barcelona. The rivers have risen, in some cases twenty-five feet, sweeping away railways, roads, bridges, telegraph lines, houses, flocks and crops. The country between the rivers Llobegrat and Cardoner is now an enormous, deep lake.

It is impossible to communicate with thousands of sufferers except by means of boats, which are going from the ports, manned by naval men and others.

Soldiers and members of the Red Cross have been sent to the surrounding high grounds to rescue the people. Industry and agriculture have been stopped in an immense area.
